GEORGIA SOFTBALL

2016 MEDIA GUIDE

The tone for winning was set early in Georgia history and has continued today. The Bulldogs have had 14-consecutive 40+ win seasons, including seven with 50 or more. Over the last 10 years, Georgia has accumulated 472 wins, which ranks eighth in the nation.

The goal for every team is to reach NCAA postseason, and Georgia has done that for 14-straight seasons, one of 11 teams to do so. With eight Super Regional appearances, Georgia has gone on to the Women's College World Series twice, becoming one of the last four teams standing both times.

Numerous elite players have called Athens home, evident in the 24 NFCA All-Americans since 2002. Along with that, Georgia boasts 54 NFCA All-Region and 60 All-SEC honorees. Success isn't just on the field either, as Georgia has had 118 selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Lu Harris-Champer enters her 20th year coaching and 16th year at Georgia. One of the top coaches in the NCAA, Harris-Champer has tallied 940 career wins with 731 of those by the Bulldogs. Harris-Champer has reached 40 or more wins in 18 of her 19 seasons coaching.

The game of softball hasn't stopped for many after their Georgia career ends, as 16 Bulldogs have gone on to the professional side. Since 2007, seven Bulldogs have heard their names in the NPF Draft. Four former players were on NPF rosters in 2015, tied for the second most from a single school.

There is no place like home for the Georgia Bulldogs, and JackTurner Stadium provides a great home field advantage. With close to 1,400 in the grandstands, Bulldog Nation has helped Georgia to 489 home wins. Georgia has also hosted eight NCAA Regionals and four Super Regionals.

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

In its 19 seasons of existence, the Georgia Bulldogs have made noise across the softball landscape. From two Women's College World Series appearances and three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the opening season in 1997, Georgia has accumulated 846 wins, including 298 in SEC action. A majority of those wins have come under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, 731 to be exact in her 15 years in the Classic City. The Bulldogs have had 14-straight seasons with 40 or more wins, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends, but carries on in postseason action. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the Championship Game. The past 14 years have also seen Georgia in a NCAA Regional while appearing in eight Super Regionals, collecting 54 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.

With the 2016 season here, there may be a new squad in Athens, but the goals remain the same, and Georgia won't be quieting down any time soon.

472 Total wins over the last 10 years, which ranks eighth in the nation. The Bulldogs hold a .732 winning percentage during that time frame.

229 Wins in the past five seasons, ranking Georgia ninth in Division I, to go along with a .739 winning percentage.

178 Victories for the last four years, good for a .718 win-loss percentage. Those wins place Georgia 11th nationally in total wins.

[POSTSEASONSTAPLE]

Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from what the Bulldogs accomplish in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to a NCAA Regional in each of the past 14 seasons. Its stellar track record into the postseason slate puts Georgia as one of 11 teams in the nation to appear in a Regional for 14 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in eight Super Regionals since 2005. The Bulldogs have made it to Super Regionals the last two seasons, just one of 12 teams to do so.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both.

The consistency that the Bulldogs have showed reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

---

14 Total appearances in NCAA postseason action in Georgia history.

11 Georgia is one of 11 schools and one of three SEC teams to play in 14 or more consecutive NCAA Regionals.

2 Georgia is one of 12 teams to participate in the past two NCAA Super Regionals, making it eight total in Georgia history.

[PRODAWGS]

Former Bulldogs have made their presence known in the professional world, helping to grow the game across the nation.

Overall, 16 Bulldogs have gone on to play ball after their collegiate career. Since 2007, seven Georgia players were selected in the NPF Draft.

In the 2015 season, Georgia had four past athletes represented on a NPF roster, which is tied for the second most from a single school.

Those four--Alisa Goler, Kristyn Sandberg, Taylor Schlopy and Megan Wiggins--have had noteworthy careers in the NPF, each earning league-wide accolades. Since Goler, Schlopy and Wiggins entered the league in 2011, at least one of the four former Bulldogs has been named to the All-NPF Team.

This past season, Sandberg and Schlopy garnered the award while Schlopy was also the Worth Home Run Champion.

ABOUT THE NPF

National Pro Fastpitch is headquartered in Nashville, Tenn. The league, created to give elite female fast pitch players the opportunity to pursue a professional career in their chosen sport, has operated since 1997 under the names of Women's Pro Fastpitch (WPF) and Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). NPF is the official Development Partner of Major League Baseball in the category of women's fast pitch softball since 2002.

[JACKTURNERSTADIUM]

Jack Turner Stadium
The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The facility holds close to 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. The Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host eight NCAA Regionals and four NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugout are connected via tunnel from the locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it, including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers as well as the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built featuring suites for radio, television, media and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

Jack Turner
Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included:

Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Distinction," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artisits into worldwide superstars.

Athen's ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

Located 70 miles northeast of Atlanta, Athens is far enough away to provide the city with its own unique identity but also close enough that "the ATL" and all it has to offer is just a short drive away. It is also five hours or less from popular beach destinations such as Hilton Head, Tybee Island and St. Simons Island while less than a two-hour drive from the mountains of Northeast Georgia.

[UNIVERSITYOFGEORGIA]

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

>> Georgia returns 13 letterwinners from last year's 44-win squad, including NFCA All-American Alex Hugo. Hugo leads the power hitters, as she hit a SEC-best 22 home runs, ranking 12th nationally. With a .389 batting average, she totaled 65 hits and 73 RBI while putting up a slugging percentage of .898 and on-base percentage of .498, thanks in part to 39 walks.

>> The speedy Emanuel sisters, Cortni and Sydni, are back in Georgia uniforms. The duo combined for 115 runs, 158 hits and 67 stolen bases last year. Cortni earned All-America honors during her freshman season after posting a .408 average and going 45-of-49 in swiped bags. Sydni is this year's top returner in batting average with a .421 mark in 2015.

>> In the circle, NFCA All-American and 2014 SEC Tournament MVP Chelsea Wilkinson will compete in her final season for the Bulldogs, coming off a year with a 2.19 ERA and a 28-11 record. Wilkinson collected 266 strikeouts to go with nine shutouts and an opponent batting average of .190, all of which ranked in the top 25 nationally. Also returning is Brittany Gray, as she notched 15 wins with 99 strikeouts in her freshman season.

>> Georgia adds depth with six newcomers, including four true freshmen and two junior transfers. Entering their first collegiate season are pitcher Kylie Bass, infielder Alyssa DiCarlo, outfielder Brea Dickey and infielder Lacey Sumerlin. Joining those four are infielder Kayleigh Medlin and outfielder Lindsey Miles, both transfers from Georgia Highlands College.

>> The challenges will come in plenty in the Bulldogs' schedule with 12 foes claiming a spot in a 2015 NCAA Regional along with five of the eight teams in last year's Women's College World Series, including Alabama, Auburn, LSU, Tennessee and UCLA. Of the 36 opponents on the slate, 23 ranked in the top 100 RPI by the end of the 2015 season, including 14 in the top 50 and five in the top 10. With nine ranked or receiving votes in the final national polls, 14 teams finished the year with 35 or more wins, including eight with 40 or more.

>> Georgia was voted sixth in the SEC Preseason Poll as voted on by the league's coaches. The five teams above the Bulldogs each participated in last season's Women's College World Series.

>> The Bulldogs look to hit a couple of milestone wins this year. Georiga is four wins away from the program's 850th win while just two shy of 300 SEC wins.

>> Georgia welcomes two new coaches to its staff in assistant coach Rachele Fico and volunteer assistant coach Nick French. Fico was a two-time All-American pitcher at LSU and comes to Athens after serving as pitching coach at top-25 program South Alabama. Spending the last four years at Holy Cross, French comes to Georgia with expereience from coaching at Arizona and Memphis as well.

>> Head coach Lu Harris-Champer is entering her 20th season of coaching while her 16th at Georgia. Overall, Harris-Champer has accumulated 940 career wins, including 731 with the Bulldogs. She has guided her squads to four Women's College World Series, eight Super Regionals and 18 Regional berths. Harris-Champer has reached 40 or more wins in 18 of 19 seasons coaching and has never had a losing overall record.

TONY BALDWIN

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014. Baldwin returns to Athens after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at North Carolina.

In his first season back, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top 100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

At UNC, Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth College, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001 and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1994-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998 and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Ind., Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-2012.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children, Ella, Abby, Brady and Katie.

RACHELE FICO

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

With a career that boasts accolades of a two-time National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American and hailing as the No. 1 draft pick in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft, former LSU standout Rachele Fico joins the Georgia softball staff as an assistant coach for the 2016 season.

Fico's experience will add to Georgia's pitching staff that ranked 16th in the nation with a 2.19 ERA in 2015. The upcoming season will see All-American and 2014 Southeastern Conference Tournament MVP Chelsea Wilkinson return for her senior campaign after ranking in the top 20 nationally in victories (28), strikeouts (266) and shutouts (9) last year.

Fico served as an assistant coach at top-25 program South Alabama during the 2015 season where the Jaguars took the Sun Belt Conference crown and advanced to its fourth-straight NCAA Regional. Under Fico's guidance, the USA pitching staff held a 2.51 ERA that was top 30 in the NCAA while the trio of pitchers was each in the top 150 individually. Outside of ERA, Fico helped freshman Devin Brown rank fourth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings (10.9) and senior Farish Beard finish seventh in the NCAA in hits allowed per seven innings (4.04). Beard and freshman Kalen McGill earned All-SBC honors.

The Oxford, Conn., native was the No. 1 draft pick out of college, playing the last three seasons with the NPF's Akron Racers. An All-NPF Team selection in 2014, Fico has pitched over 220 innings on her way to 20 wins during her professional career.

While at LSU, Fico was a two-time NFCA First-Team All-American, three-time NFCA All-South Region First-Team member and three-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree.

During her freshman season with the Tigers in 2010, Fico was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year in addition to making the All-SEC Freshman and Defensive Team lists. A year later, she led her club to the 2011 NCAA College Station Regional where the Tigers ultimately fell to Syracuse, but not before the right-handed hurler earned a spot on the All-Regional Team behind an 18-strikeout performance against the Orange, a feat which tied for second-most in LSU history.

Fico also brings Women's College World Series experience after leading the Tigers to Oklahoma City as a junior in 2012 when she earned both wins over No. 9 national seed Missouri at the NCAA Columbia Super Regional. Prior to that, she was unanimously named the NCAA College Station Regional MVP after compiling back-to-back shutouts versus Texas State and No. 8 national seed Texas A&M.

Fico completed her collegiate career among LSU's top five in appearances (149), starts (104), complete games (82), innings pitched (774.0), wins (78), saves (8), opposing batting average (0.195), shutouts (32), strikeouts (797) and strikeouts per seven innings (7.21).

NICK FRENCH

VOL. ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

After spending time on staff at places like Arizona, Memphis and College of the Holy Cross, Nick French joins the Georgia softball staff as a volunteer assistant coach for the 2016 season.

French spent the last four seasons as an assistant at Holy Cross, specializing in working with the pitching staff and assisting in offensive instruction, including both hitting and base running. While with the Crusaders, French coached eight All-Patriot League selections and two NFCA All-Region honorees in Emily Jarvis and Taylor Moss. He also helped develop knuckleball pitcher Gennifer Durham, as she threw the school's first-ever and the Patriot League's second-ever perfect game in 2013. Under his guidance, Holy Cross had two pitchers finish in the top 15 in the nation in fewest walks.

In 2011, French was an assistant coach for Memphis, helping the Tigers to their best season with a 36-14 record and first NCAA Regional berth in school history. The Tigers finished fourth in Conference USA with a 15-7 mark, which was the best conference record in school history. In non-conference play, Memphis knocked off eventual NCAA Tournament teams Kentucky and Stanford and reeled off a school-record 10-game winning streak. Off the field, French oversaw academic achievement of the student-athletes, as the team held a GPA of 3.2 with 16 of the 20 Tigers finishing with a 3.0 GPA or better.

French served as a volunteer assistant coach in 2010 with National Runner-Up Arizona. He helped oversee the daily operations of the nationally-ranked Wildcat squad as well as assisting in the development of the outfielders. The Wildcats were consistently ranked in the top five of the various polls and won four-straight elimination games during the postseason. French coached under eight-time national champion and two-time United States Olympic team coach Mike Candrea while at Arizona.

Prior to his stint at Arizona, French was the interim head coach at Simmons (Mass.) College in 2008 before becoming an assistant coach at Piedmont (Pa.) College. At Piedmont, his team finished fourth in the conference and had four All-Conference players as well as the conference Rookie of the Year.

He began coaching at the age of 14 under his father, Marty French, who ran the highly-successful Bay State Blaze Junior Olympic program. During that time, he took part in six national tournaments, sending many players on to college programs. He also served as pitching coach at his alma mater, Abington High School, for five years in addition to Emerson College.

French attended Emerson College where he played basketball for a season and assisted with the softball program. He graduated in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and minor in political science. He has previously worked for the Boston Globe and served as a sports editor for the Community Newspaper Company.

GREG MCGARITY

J. REID PARKER
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida.

Since that time, McGarity has injected a program of imagination and innovation into the Georgia Athletic Association with emphasis on exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas of competition, academics, and service.

Among the many initiatives are implementation of a nutrition program for all sports, greater emphasis on customer service as well as community service, scoreboard upgrades enhancing the in-game experience for guests and patrons in all sports, and development of leadership programs fostering staff development. In addition, he has encouraged the experimentation of new ideas such as moving volleyball competition to Stegeman Coliseum and helping bring a sold-out concert (Jason Aldean, 65,000) to Sanford Stadium for the first time in stadium history. He was also instrumental in development and implementation along with Nike of a new brand identity program, which brings consistency in use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals to Georgia sports teams.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $117 million. Since becoming Director of Athletics, Georgia teams have won national championships in women's swimming and diving (2013 and '14) and equestrian (2014) and SEC championships in men's tennis (2011, '13, '14, and '15), men's tennis SEC Tournament (2012 and '13), women's tennis (2013), women's tennis SEC Tournament ('14), women's swimming and diving (2011, '12, '13, '14, and '15), softball SEC Tournament (2014), sequestrian (2015), and two SEC eastern division titles in football (2011 and 2012). During that time, 18 different Georgia teams have been ranked in the nation's top 20 and 10 in the top ten. Georgia's standing in the Learfield Director's Cup, which annually measures athletic teams success in NCAA championships, has improved from 20th in 2011 to 10th in 2013 and is consistently in the top 20.

McGarity has also been a standard bearer for academic achievement. Since his arrival, Georgia student-athletes have been the recipients of eight NCAA Post Graduate Scholarships, 21 CoSIDA Academic All-American awards, three NCAA Top Ten honors, three SEC Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year, and two SEC Brad Davis Awards.

In addition, he has been at the forefront of facility expansion and renovation. Recently completed are a $12 million Foley Field (baseball) facility renovation, and new scoreboards/video boards at baseball, softball, and soccer. New sound systems in Stegeman Coliseum and Sanford Stadium have also been installed to improve the fan experience, as well as improvements in rest ooms and concessions stands. In addition, a new Indoor Athletic Facility is scheduled to be constructed adjacent to the Butts-Mehre Building, which will provide a facility for all sports to utilize.

McGarity was appointed as the athletic director's representative to the SEC Executive Committee in 2013. He was named recipient of the 2013 Tom Osborne Award presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) for special achievement and contributions to advanced-practice sports nutrition. A 1976 graduate of UGA's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, McGarity is a 2012 inductee into the Grady Fellowship, a recognition program to honor those whose influence, achievements and service to the media professions have enhanced the reputation of the Grady College.

He served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee from 2012-14. McGarity is also currently serving on the NCAA National Letter of Intent Football Recruiting Group, SEC Fan Experience Working Group, and the U.S. Tennis Association Athletic Director's Advisory Group.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as both an associate and senior associate athletic director during his tenure. His duties at Florida included assisting the athletic director in daily operations of the department, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches, among other areas. McGarity was involved in the planning and supervision of several construction projects, including the expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and the William Heavener Football Complex.

McGarity was a letterman on the 1973 Bulldog tennis team and following graduation began his professional career at UGA. After serving as a student assistant from 1973-77, he held positions as assistant sports information director and head women's tennis coach (1977-81), administrative assistant (1982-88), and assistant athletic director for facilities and event management (1988-92).

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Georgia.
